6. Privacy and Confidentiality of Neutral Evaluation

6.1 Neutral Evaluation Agreement

Prior to the commencement of the Neutral Evaluation, the parties attending the Neutral Evaluation shall execute a Neutral Evaluation Agreement which outlines the purpose and procedure of the Neutral Evaluation, as well as its private, confidential and without prejudice nature. See the Neutral Evaluation Form provided on this website. This suggested form may be modified by mutual consent of the parties and the Evaluator to meet any specific needs of the parties as to confidentiality or otherwise.

6.2 All Neutral Evaluations before an ADR Chambers Evaluator are private and confidential. Any person attending the hearing may do so only by consent of the parties and the Evaluator.

6.3 At the Evaluation, each party or Counsel, is invited to make an oral presentation of his or her position. If mutually agreed by the parties in advance of the Evaluation, an expert or lay witness may present evidence touching upon the issues to be evaluated. Admissibility of such evidence will be determined by the Evaluator.

6.4 All notes, documents, and reports produced for or exchanged between the parties as part of the presentation of a party at the Evaluation, and all representations, statements of the parties, their agents, employees, witnesses, experts or representatives, and by the Evaluator, and any notes of such persons, are "without prejudice" and for the purpose of the Neutral Evaluation only and shall not be disclosed to any third party and shall not be offered as evidence in any arbitration or judicial or other proceeding.

6.5 Notwithstanding Rule 6(4), evidence that is otherwise admissible shall not be rendered inadmissible because it has been used in a Neutral Evaluation before an Evaluator of ADR Chambers.

6.6 Neither the Evaluator, nor any of ADR Chambers' employees shall be compelled to appear as a witness or expert in any pending or future adversarial or judicial proceeding involving any one or more of the parties or relating in any way to the subject matter of the Neutral Evaluation.

or

8.3 by delivery of the Evaluator's oral or written report.

9. Exclusion of Liability

9 ADR Chambers and its employees or agents, including the Evaluator and the Co-ordinator, shall not be liable to any party or representative for any act or omission howsoever arising in connection with any Neutral Evaluation conducted through the auspices of ADR Chambers or any of the affiliated entities of ADR Chambers Inc. ## 11. Neutral Evaluation Fees

11.1 Hourly fee

There is a minimum deposit required of $4,500 per day plus applicable taxes.

11.3 The parties and their solicitors shall be jointly and severally responsible for the payment of the account rendered by ADR Chambers but may agree, as between them, the manner in which the said fees and disbursements will be paid.

12. Travel

13.4 In making rental arrangements for facilities or venue for the hearing, equipment, lunches and refreshments, ADR Chambers does so as an agent of the parties who are jointly and severally responsible for the payment thereof. These expenses will be added as disbursements to the final account to the parties.

14. Cancellations/Adjournments, Fees and Disbursements

The cancellation fees, administrative fees and disbursements shall be deducted from the deposit, if sufficient, or otherwise billed to the parties.

14.2 Any adjournment of a Neutral Evaluation on consent of the parties or an adjournment required due to a position taken by one or more of the parties shall be deemed to be a cancellation and subject to the provisions of Rule 14.1 above, and the parties and their solicitors shall be jointly and severally responsible for the account of ADR Chambers for any fees, administrative charges, disbursements, taxes and cancellation charges as set out in Rules 11, 13, and 14 and the sub-paragraphs thereto.
